Global R&D is fueling the development of flow battery chemistry by significantly enabling higher energy density electrodes and also extending flow battery applications. For example, Pacific Northwest National Laboratory's (PNNL) redox flow laboratories conduct fundamental research and test.

The Government of Barbados has officially launched a major procurement process for the country's first large-scale Battery Energy Storage Systems (BESS), aimed at transforming the national electricity grid and unlocking delayed renewable energy investments. The launch event, hosted by the Ministry.

The project, located in Sremska Mitrovica, Serbia, is set to become one of the largest solar-plus-storage projects in south-east Europe, with a total solar PV capacity of 180MW and a BESS facility capacity of 36MWh. The Linzhou Fengyuan 300MW/1000MWh project highlights the transformative potential.

Barbados is a step closer to launching its first procurement project for Battery Energy Storage Systems to support the grid and unlock stalled Solar PV connections. The Ministry of Energy and Business is currently hosting a three-day Procurement Design Workshop with key stakeholders to discuss and.
